

Hello class!!

For this week I want you to take a look to this page: <http://www.koalertext.com/public/>, in the part of the students there are interesting activities for you.

Moreover, I am going to send you some readings from the page “learnenglishkids” to practice this skill.

And don't forget that you always can sing a song in English at the webpage “Lyrics training”

Have fun!!! I miss you so much. Lili
